

NADA Number: 130-464
Trade Name	Gentocin® (Garacin) Pig Pump Oral Solution
Sponsor	Schering-Plough Animal Health Corp.
Ingredients	Gentamicin Sulfate
Species	Swine, neonate or suckling
Routes of Administration	Per Os
Dose Form	Liquid (solution)
Drug Form	Liquid (solution)
Dispensing Status	OTC
Dosage Amount, Indications & Limitations	520.1044b Gentamicin sulfate pig pump oral solution. Specifications: Each milliliter of pig pump oral solution contains gentamicin sulfate equivalent to 4.35 milligrams of gentamicin. Conditions of use: Swine (neonatal) Amount: Administer 1.15 milliliters of pig pump oral solution (5 of gentamicin) orally per pig one time. Indications: In neonatal swine 1 to 3 days of age for control and treatment of colibacillosis caused by strains of E. coli sensitive to gentamicin. Limitations: For use in neonatal swine only. Do not slaughter treated swine for food for at least 14 days following treatment.
Tolerances	A tolerance of 0.1 part per million is established for negligible residues of gentamicin sulfate in the uncooked edible tissues of chickens and turkeys. Tolerances are established for total residues of gentamicin in edible tissues of swine as follows: 0.1 part per million in muscle, 0.3 part per million in liver, and 0.4 part per million in fat and kidney.